News Digest.

The House of Representatives has resolved to adjourn sine die on the 18th of June next.

The Senate Homestead Bill came up in the House yesterday, when the original House Bill was substituted therefor, by a vote of 104 to 56. It now goes back to the Senate for adoption or rejection.

Foreign advices, one day later than those received by the Adriatic, will be found in our 1st page column.

A Strong Platform.

The platform adopted in the Convention at Chicago, is dovetailed together by so many important principles and objects, that it is unquestionably the strongest—not in an ultra sense—of any ever offered to the American people. It is the most Conservative, because Right is always Conservative, and wrong is destructive. It affirms, "that the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence and embodied in the Federal Constitution, is essential to the preservation of our Republican Institutions, and that the Federal Constitution, the rights of the States and the union of the States, must and shall be preserved."

It is explicit; it unqualifiedly condemns all interference with Slavery in the States.—It charges home upon the Democracy their disunion treason, and looks to the people to suppress it. It arraigns the corrupt Administration and condemns it. It scouts the idea that the Constitution carries Slavery with it. It is in favor of the protection of the rights of all classes of citizens—native or naturalized, both at home and abroad. It is in favor of the HOMESTEAD BILL. It is in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas as a State. It is in favor of a Pacific Railroad, and of River and Harbor improvements.

The unprecedented enthusiasm with which it was received at Chicago is some indication of how the people will take it, now that ABE LINCOLN stands thereon.

Exciting Scene before the Covode Committee.

A violent and extraordinary scene occurred in Mr. COVODE'S committee room on Wednesday. Mr. SCHNABLE had been recalled to close his testimony, and Judge BLACK was present by his own request, expecting to conduct the cross-examination, but the Committee decided that he must only submit questions in writing through Mr WISLOW, one of its members. Mr. SCHNABLE proceeded to give the history of his political relation to the Administration, and why he went to The Constitution office to demand a cessation of attacks on Mr. DOUGLAS, where he had the accidental interview with Judge BLACK, which led to the publication of Mr. BUCHANAN'S letter to Mr. WALKER. During the progress of the testimony, Judge BLACK frequently interrupted him and put questions, and finally asked where his residence was, which Mr. SCHNABLE regarded as an insulting imputation. Mr. SCHNABLE thereupon rose from his seat and denounced him in the most offensive terms, applying those of "liar," "scoundrel," and much epithets, with the utmost freedom. Judge BLACK left the room, and was followed by Mr. SCHNABLE, who continued to stigmatize him along the corridors, and in the presence of astonished spectators. Both parties threaten criminal prosecution.

The Canadians in a Flutter.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales is just now the cause of the utmost excitement in Canada. Addresses are being manufactured in every city, town and hamlet.—The magistrates, the clergy, the bar, the tradesmen, the mechanics, the laborers, are racking their brains for spare sentiments of loyalty to be offered up when His Serene Highness shall loom up to their astonished eyes. All the St. Georges' the St. Andrews' and the St. Patricks' Societies will have a tilt at him. All the Universities will assail him. The militia will fight for the honor of escorting him. The boards of trade will smother him in resolutions and gold snuff boxes. He will be surfeited with homage, and grow sick of triumphal arches and no doubt be glad when he gets away.

The prospect of speech-making at the Prince is perfectly terrible, and the Toronto Globe, in view of the horrible fate that awaits him, advises the speakers to do as did the man who was too lazy to say his prayers, point to the documents and say, "Them's my sentiments." If his Highness is not over partial to long speeches, he may imitate Queen ELIZABETH, who visited Falkenstone, and the Mayor being introduced, he, with great gravity, mounted a three-legged stool and commenced his poetical declamation thus:

"O, mighty queene,
Welcome to Falkenstene."

ELIZABETH burst out in a roar of laughter, and, without giving his worship time to recover himself, she replied:

"You great fool,
Get off that stool."

DEMOCRATIC REUNION.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune telegraphs to the effect that if any political estimate at Chicago be predicated upon an expectation that the Democracy will not reunite at Baltimore, it had better be promptly dismissed. Arrangements are now in progress to bring both wings together on the basis of the Tennessee resolution, which is acceptable to DAVIS, TOOMBS, HUNTER, IVERSON, BROWN, and nearly all the Southern Senators and Members. That point carried, as it will be by the aid of New York and part of New England, the rest will follow naturally. A quiet but extended movement is making to put GUTHRIE on that platform, and this is urged, because his last vote at Charleston was equally divided between the North and the South.

THE LA CROSSE NATIONAL DEMOCRAT TO BE STARTED AGAIN.—A new paper, printed with new material, but with the old name, will be issued at La Crosse by A. P. BLAKESLEE, on the 18th of June next.

MAD DOGS.—The mad dog excitement is rampant again. A man and his two sons were lately bitten in Troy, Walworth county, and we hear of many rabid dogs being killed in various parts of the State.

The Usefulness of the Westboro State Reform School.

The Trustees of the State Reform School, Westboro, Mass, determined last year to make a particular inquiry respecting the history, and character of those boys who had been its inmates. The result, which was reached by laborious investigation, is thus given: "The whole number of boys committed to the school since its opening in 1848 is 2,537. The number of inmates at the present time is 507. This left a total of 1,988, whose history was the subject of inquiry. Of this number the career of about 300 could not be traced with certainty. This comprises boys who were committed on short sentences, under assumed names, who were in feeble health, and who have left the State Of the 1,653 whose history and character have been ascertained, 181 have turned out badly. This fourteen and one-seventh per cent on the total of 1,888—1,372 of these boys are known to have done well. This is 69 per cent of all who have gone forth from the institution.

In this calculation, in all cases of doubt, the doubt is given against the institution; although in a large number of instances the probabilities were in favor of a thorough reformation.

The Trustees say that "this is a better record than has ever been claimed; and considering the disadvantages under which the institution has labored from want of the means of proper classification, the advanced age of majority of the boys when committed, and the great number of short sentences, it is a better result than the truest friends of the school dared to hope for. If the common way of calculating averages were adopted the table would stand thus: Whole number of cases investigated 1,654; of these turned out badly 17 per cent. 281; reformed 83 per cent. 1,372."

MANITOWOC & LAKE MICHIGAN RAILROAD.—Mr. JAMES BEACHELL, of Toronto, and R. BELL, of Ottawa, have been spending several days in Manitowoc and Menasha, investigating the condition of the Manitowoc & Lake Michigan Railroad. They are represented to be gentlemen of ample means and financial influence, and they came to Manitowoc upon the invitation of the Company, for the purpose of consummating an arrangement, advantageous alike to themselves and all parties interested, for the prompt completion of the road. But they were met by an unexpected difficulty. Legal proceedings have been instituted against the present company which involve litigation. An injunction was served upon the company on the 24th of March, on the affidavits and complaint of GEORGE and CURTIS REED, and Judge COTTON, in the Winnebago County Circuit Court, has sustained the injunction.

The road was sold to the present company nearly two years ago, and we know not upon what grounds the Messrs. REED asked for and obtained an injunction. A long time has intervened since the transfer of the road by sale to Messrs. JONES and LAUPS, and if the REEDS had any claim, it is somewhat singular that their action was so long delayed. They aver that they have no desire to hinder or delay the construction of the road—that they are anxious that the company shall build it if they can—so that it is built, they care not who does it, only let us have the road. The present is a good time to demonstrate their sincerity in this respect, by relieving the present organization of the necessity of litigation in order to remove the injunction.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A little son of JOHN HOFFMAN, of Racine, was recently playing in a lot on the banks of Blue River, where his father had turned his horse to graze, and as he came up to one of the horses, he struck it with a stick, when the horse kicked the boy on the forehead over his eye, so hard a blow that his eye protruded an inch or more from the socket and fell out upon his cheek. Dr. TEEGARDEN was called, who did the best he could to alleviate the pain of the little sufferer. It was a terrible wound, and it is doubtful if he can recover.

MR. LINCOLN AND THE CONVENTION.

The Chairmen of the Delegations at Springfield—Official Notice of the Nomination—Mr. Ashman's Speech—Mr. Lincoln's Reply.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 19.

The committee appointed by the Republican National Convention at Chicago, consisting of the Presidens and the Chairmen of the State delegations, to notify Mr. Lincoln of his nomination, arrived here at 7:40 P.M. this evening. The train was met at the depot by a large concourse of citizens, who escorted them to the hotel. Cannons were fired, and a number of buildings on the line of march were brilliantly illuminated. Loud cheers were given for Gov. Morgan, of New York, F. P. Blair Jr., of Missouri, Gov. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, and three cheers and a tiger for the Pennsylvania delegation. After supper the committee proceeded quietly to the residence of Mr. Lincoln. Having assembled in the main parlor of his house Mr. Ashman addressed Mr. Lincoln as follows:

"I have, sir, the honor in behalf of the gentlemen who are present, a committee appointed by the Republican convention recently assembled at Chicago, to discharge a most pleasant duty. We have come, sir, under a vote of instructions to that committee to notify you that you have been selected by the convention of Republicans at Chicago, as their candidate for President of the United States. They instruct us, sir, to notify you of that selection, and they deem it not only respectful to yourself, but as appropriate to the important matter which they had in hand, and they should come to you in person and present to you the authentic evidence of the action of that convention; and, sir, without any phrase which shall either be considered personally plaudatory to yourself, or which shall have any reference to the principles involved in the questions which are connected with your nomination, I desire to present you the letter which has been prepared and which informs you of the nomination, and with the platform, reports and sentiments which the convention adopted. Sir, at your convenience, we shall be glad to hear from you such a response as it may be your pleasure to give us."

Mr. Lincoln replied as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee, I tender you, and through you, to the Republican National Convention, and all the people represented in it, my profoundest thanks for the high honor done me, which you formally announced. Deeply and even painfully sensible of the great responsibility which is inseparable from that honor—a responsibility which I could almost wish had fallen upon some one of the far more eminent men and experienced Statesmen whose distinguished names were before the Convention; I shall, by your leave, consider more fully the resolutions of the Convention, denominated the Platform, and without unreasonable delay, respond to you, Mr. Chairman, in writing, not doubting that the Platform will be found satisfactory, and the nomination accepted; and now I will no longer defer the pleasure of taking you and each of you by the hand." The various members of the Committee were then presented to Mr. Lincoln, who greeted each of them with a hearty shake of the hand.

THE NOMINATION.—The nomination of Abraham Lincoln, of Illinois, will be received with enthusiasm by the Republicans in all parts of the Union. Mr. Lincoln has already proved himself a worthy champion of Republican principles. We place his name at the head of our columns with unfeigned pleasure.

He will be the next President of the United States.—Cleveland Herald, May 18.

SUPPOSED HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—A man calling himself CHAUNCY FERRIN was arrested in Janesville on the 16th inst, on suspicion of having stolen a horse and buggy. He came into that city about noon, and offered the horse and buggy for sale, but the answers given by him as to how he came by the property, led the officers to suspect and arrest him.

Interesting Foreign Items

HEENAN was in Liverpool on the 3d inst. attracting much attention. He is described as being much altered in appearance, since the fight.

A KILKENNY PAPER says that General DE LAMORCIE, now engaged in organizing the army of the Pope, is not only an Irishman but a native of the county of KILKENNY.—His real name is MORRISSY.

A STRANGE STORY.—A sad event, unfortunately not unique in the annals of science, has just occurred here. Some time ago a lady of superior talent, a governess in private families, had confided to her care a little Russian boy, born deaf and dumb. The child was of gentle temper and endearing manners, and the poor governess bent the whole of her intelligence to the possibility of instructing him to keep pace with her other pupils.—Soon, at sight of his quick comprehension of the various methods she invented for his instruction, she began to grow more ambitious still, and to be devoured with the desire to endow him with the faculty which nature herself had denied. For this purpose it appears that Mademoiselle Cleret spent whole nights in study, and lavished her slender means in experiments. At length the light broke in upon her. She remained perfectly convinced that in sulphuric ether must reside the talisman powerful enough to restore the deaf to a sense of hearing. She began by pouring into the ear a few drops at a time, gradually increasing the quantity until it reached ten drops. The cure was complete. The child heard and understood in a short time.

The articulation was still imperfect for a little while longer, but that, it seems, has since yielded to surgical treatment. The fame of the cure was spread far and near.—The remedy was tried upon numberless individuals in all stages of deafness, and in every case succeeded. A commission was named to pronounce upon the discovery made by Mademoiselle Cleret. The decision was made wholly in its favor, the Montyon prize was awarded to the fortunate lady, and various testimonials of favor conveyed to her, both from public bodies and private individuals. But the end of this sacrifice and devotion to the cause of humanity is sad to tell. Poor Mademoiselle Cleret, unable to resist the change from a position of dependence and privation to one of comparative opulence, has sunk beneath the weight of the unexpected honors thus conferred upon her. Her mind, worn out with labor and with watching, has given way, and she has just been conveyed a hopeless maniac to a maison de sante at Montemartre.—Letter from Paris.

THE OLD STORY of the cook who committed suicide on account of a culinary failure, has now a fellow. Two men, employed as cooks in a restaurant of the Rue de Monnaie, Paris, not long ago went to a carabet to drink, and in that agreeable occupation allowed time to slip away unperceived. At length three o'clock struck, and they hurried to their restaurant to prepare the daily dinners. But one of the two observed, after a while, that his companion did not make much progress in his work, and said, "Make haste, old fellow—its getting late!" but at the same moment the other fell, bathed in blood, and faintly exclaimed, "I have neglected my duty, and am dishonored!" He had stabbed himself in the abdomen with a knife. He was taken to the Hotel Dieu, and there repeated that he had designedly attempted to kill himself because he could not get his dinners ready in time. Shortly after, he expired.

THE London correspondent of the New York Post has the following in reference to the late presentation of Geo. Wilkes to the Queen:

"Another thing just now exciting much talk and disgust (the latter, I think, justly,) is the introduction of Mr. Hesnan's backers at the Queen's last drawing room—men not of character or position entitling them to such distinction. I hope no persons influenced Mr. Dallas in the matter, which gives us at the present moment much annoyance and scandal; and, to Englishmen, who regard the presence of the Queen as in a measure sacred and reverend, it is really little less than an insult."

A LETTER from Paris says: "Anything so unseemly as M. de Morny's way of presiding over the Chamber I have seldom seen. He shows the contempt these men inspire in him, but which is a feeling he has no right to entertain for any man. At the last hunting party at Baron Rothschild's place in La Brie, one of the young Rothschilds affected to call all the hounds in his pack by their names. "Tiens," said M. de Morny, who was standing by, "You know all your dogs by name; that's more than I do. I don't know the names of all my Deputies!" For this I can vouch, and so can several persons who were present."

Excursion over the North-Western and Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroads—Visit of the Massachusetts and Other Delegations to Madison.

A portion of the Delegates to the Chicago Convention from Massachusetts, Maine, and other New England States, and Pennsylvania, left Chicago this morning by a special train over the Northwestern and Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroads, for an excursion to this city.

Mr. Ogden, the President of the North-Western Road, and Mr. P. H. Smith, the Vice-President, accompanied the excursion.

Gov. Randall and Attorney General Howe of this State were on board, with other citizens. The Massachusetts delegation were attended by the famous Gilmore brass band of Boston, who furnished stirring music for the occasion. Every effort was made by the officers of the road to contribute to the enjoyment of the party.

During the large portion of the way, the train made about forty-eight miles per hour.

At the State line the cars stopped, and our eastern visitors were introduced to Wisconsin by Gov. Randall. Three cheers were then given for Wisconsin and Illinois and three more rousers for Lincoln and Hamlin.

At Janesville, the train made a brief stop, and a short and stirring address was had from Mr. Wyman, of Boston, when, after further cheering, the excursion proceeded on its way, reaching the Madison depot a little after 1 o'clock.

They were met by the Governor's Guard and escorted by them into the Park, where Gov. Randall made a speech, welcoming them to Wisconsin. He was followed by Mayor Smith, who profferred to them the hospitalities of Madison. In response to these speeches, Hon. Jno. A Goodwin, Speaker of the House of Representatives of Massachusetts, made some remarks. He was followed by Hon. Erastus Hopkins, of Mass, and he by Judge Orton of this city.

The assemblage of our citizens was very large and the speeches were listened to with great attention, and were received with much applause, as they deserved. After the conclusion of Judge Orton's speech the visitors were escorted to the Capital House for dinner, since which they have been riding around the city seeing the sights and enjoying our hospitality to the utmost.—Madison Journal, Saturday, May 19th.

THE NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.

WASHINGTON, May 18.

The Republicans are generally pleased with the nomination of Lincoln. Mr. Seward's friends feel somewhat sore, but they will heartily support the ticket. Western men are elated beyond measure, and Pennsylvanians are delighted. They say Lincoln will carry their State by a handsome majority.—New England representatives are satisfied.

The Democrats pronounce the ticket a strong one, and the friends of Douglas say he is the only man to face this bold and popular move.

Mr. Douglas upon hearing the news remarked: "Lincoln and I had hard words when we run for the U. S. Senate in 1858, but he is able and honest."

It is reported here to-night that Everett positively declines the nomination for Vice President, tendered by the Baltimore Convention. ALPHA.

THE NORTH-WESTERN TRADE.—From letters received yesterday by our merchants, we are led to believe that the trade this year with the North-western country will be greater than ever before known. The traders of the Red River, the Saskatchewan, the Assiniboin have made inquiries to ascertain if the articles they need can be purchased in St. Paul, and if answered in the affirmative, have announced their intention of coming here to trade.—St. Paul Pioneer.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that a Mr. Ole Johnson, living in the Norwegian settlement, was killed Thursday last while cleaning out a well. He was in the well and had just filled the tub with sand and stone, and when part way up the rope broke and the tub falling struck Mr. Nelson upon the head, killed him instantly. He was a sober, industrious man, and leaves a family.—Juneau Co. Argus.

Our Theatre—The Webbs.

We have forfeited the respect of the WEBB family, and the WEBB family withdraws the advertisement which graced our North-East corner, from our pages. This is the result of a difference of opinion, which needs explaining. We thought and said—the Misses WEBB were "talented"—Mr. WEBB asserted that they were inimitable. We thought they were quite passable in some pieces, good in others, and abominable in one or two. Mr. WEBB contended that they stood at the very apex of the profession and were not to be approached by any living persons in the profession. Mr. WEBB not only held this as his opinion, but insisted on its being ours. Here was the rub, we honestly told Mr. WEBB we would "try as hard as we could," and went to see Miss EMMA WEBB on her benefit night play "Smike." We thought it was a failure "complete." We, however, did the best we could, and merely said:

"Miss EMMA WEBB was unfortunate in the selection of pieces on Monday (her benefit) night. "Smike" is a nondescript play at the best; lacking the original power of the story from which it is taken; and not by any means the play in which Miss WEBB will ever attain to any unusual honor. The audience, however, which was large, was kept in the best of spirits throughout the evening by the grotesque and ludicrous side play."

Mr. WEBB was indignant. He took us by storm. The idea of Miss WEBB being unfortunate in anything was preposterous. The idea of her not attaining to honor in anything she undertook, was fiendish. We knew nothing from the moment that we did not know Miss WEBB to be superior to all living or dead Actists in all living and dead Smikes, and everything else. Mr. WEBB didn't care how much we criticised, but we must not say anything "against" the Misses WEBB. We concluded not to say anything for or against and this inspiration of our dramatic zeal has caused the removal of the aforementioned North-Eastern corner advertisement.

We shall now pay our "regular" fifty cents, and hope we shall have the pleasure of saying what we think—as the readers of the SENTINEL would much prefer—unrestricted by jobs of printing and unbored by the demands of the management.

We make this statement to show that it is of our own choosing. We believe the Misses WEBB to be talented ladies, but not by any means, as "just attaining a position on the stage which will be superior to any living Artiste," as set down by the editor of the Wisconsin; which, by its fulsom puffs of the WEBBS, has secured the very lucrative job of printing the posters for the theatre, and lost the respect of all the sensible portion of its readers. We wish it understood, that when it becomes our duty to write an itinerant show into professional, social and moral notoriety, regardless of facts, we shall entertain the notion of retiring from the editorial profession in disgust.

VISITORS FROM THE EAST.—Quite a number of gentlemen came up to our city, Saturday afternoon and evening, by the Chicago and Milwaukee R. R., and passed Sunday and part of yesterday, with us. Among them were delegates from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Vermont and other States. The New York party included ex-Governor JOHN A. KING, Hon. MOSES H. GRINNELL, SIMEON DRAPER, GEORGE W. BLUNT, CHRISTOPHER MORGAN, WILLIAM G. KING and DENNING DUER. Between 11 and 12 o'clock, Saturday evening, these gentlemen were serenaded at the Newhall House by members of our Musical Society. The serenaders were entertained in one of the parlors and were addressed in happy and appropriate terms, by Gov. KING, Mr. GRINNELL and Mr. DRAPER.

Several of our visitors returned home, yesterday morning, by the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway route; while others went to LaCrosse and St. Paul, intending to return by the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R. route. The courtesies of these several roads were very liberally tendered to our Eastern friends.

SELECT SCHOOL.—Miss OSGOOD, for some years Principal of the Intermediate Department of the Seventh Ward Public School, proposes to open a Select School, on Wednesday next (to-morrow,) in the rooms of Madame SEIBERT, No. 497 Jefferson street. Miss OSGOOD is a capital teacher and has always been a favorite, both with the pupils and patrons of the Seventh Ward School. She deserves and, we trust, will meet with ample encouragement.

OFF FOR PIKE'S PEAK.—Our late Deputy Deputy United States Marshal D. C. REED, an old resident of Milwaukee, left here last evening, on his way to Pike's Peak, via St. Louis. He goes in charge of a steam crushing machine, and being an excellent engineer, will do well among the quartz rocks of the mountains about Denver City. We hope to hear occasionally from CAM., while on his journey, and after he arrives at his destination.

WELCOME RAIN.—We had a fine rain on Sunday evening, which did a world of good to vegetation. The trees, grass plats and flower beds about our city have donned their spring colors and look charmingly. The rain extended into the country, and farmers who were in town yesterday, all were smiling faces.

PERSONAL.—Our old friend and fellow-citizen DUNCAN E. CAMERON, who left Milwaukee, some three years ago, an invalid, returned yesterday, with the intention of resuming his residence and the practice of his profession in our city. His health is quite restored and his former acquaintances gladly welcome him back amongst them.

WE ARE INDEBTED to Mr. BAMFORD, of the firm of BAMFORD & BALDWIN, for a beautiful representation of the Republican Wigwam at Chicago; also a lithograph of ABRAM LINCOLN, published fifteen minutes after the nomination was made.

AT A MEETING of the property owners of the Third Ward, held in Furlong's block, on Saturday, May 19, 1860, to select a site for a market square, in said Ward, the meeting organized by choosing Alderman JOHN CRILLY, Chairman, and DANIEL O'LEARY, Secretary.

On motion, the Chair appointed a committee consisting of the following named persons to select a site for said square, JOHN P. ENGLEHARDT, TIMOTHY CARNEY, JOHN DAHLMAN, DAVID O'NEILL and HENRY WARNCKE.

The committee reported as follows:

The committee appointed to report to this meeting a suitable location for a market square, have had the same under consideration and would make the following report:

We would recommend that a committee of five be appointed by this meeting whose duty it shall be to solicit proposals from the property owners of the four following half blocks, viz: west half of block 25, east half of block 16, and the west half of block 18, the north half of block 43, stating price and terms and report to a subsequent meeting.

The committee appointed to confer with the property owners of the foregoing half blocks are as follows: THOS. H. EVISTON, TIMOTHY CARNEY, PAUL FOLEY, HENRY WARNCKE and JOHN AGNER.

The committee were instructed to report to the next meeting, which will be on next Saturday at same time and place.

WE LEARN that many ladies and gentlemen have availed themselves of the services of Dr. SCHLOSSER, the skillful operator for Corns, Bunions, &c., and were successfully treated. The Doctor's system of treating diseases of the feet has been acquired after many years study and experience, and those who have need of treatment may have the utmost confidence in receiving the advice of one who has gained the good opinion of thousands for his great ability and knowledge in that branch of surgery, to which he entirely devotes his attention.

ENTERPRISING NEWS DEALERS.—The enterprising news dealers, Bamford & Baldwin bought 12,585 copies of the Daily Press & Tribune on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. These papers were distributed and sold chiefly along the line of the Michigan Central, North Western and Milwaukee Railroads. They ordered several thousand more copies, but the presses were unable to furnish them in time for the starting of the trains Mr. Bamford resides at Milwaukee, but such was the rush of business in his line during Convention week that he was obliged to come to this city to aid his partner, Mr. Baldwin in dispensing the blessing of said news to an impatient and excited public. There are no more enterprising news dealers in the North-West than this firm, and none that distributes so many papers to the travelling public along lines of the various Railways.—Chicago Press and Tribune.

We fully endorse the above. Messrs. BAMFORD & BALDWIN have a news depot in this city and more enterprising and thorough go-ahead gentlemen, we do not know. They daily take a large edition of the SENTINEL for country circulation and in their hands we expect the edition soon to be doubled.

VAN AMBURGH'S SHOW.—The combined menagerie and circus of Mr. VAN AMBURGH will exhibit here on Thursday and Friday. The circus company is pronounced one of the best now travelling. Dr. JAS. L. THAYER, the noted American clown, and NAT AUSTIN, the English ditto, form no inconsiderable part of the attraction. The stud of horses is large, and the train of wild beasts, performing, as they do, the most incredible feats with their keeper, make up a first-class show. This combined menagerie and circus has been playing in Chicago for the last week and drew the largest and most respectable audiences every night.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The following resolution passed the Board of Aldermen last evening:

Resolved, At the usual time of levying the annual taxes for the year 1860, a school tax shall be levied, sufficient in addition to such sums as may be realized from the school fund, and the State school tax required to be raised annually by the County Board of Supervisors to maintain and keep in operation the several common Schools in the city of Milwaukee.

Resolved, That the Board of School Commissioners be requested to cause the Common Schools of the city to be opened as soon as possible.

THE STEAMSHIP Detroit took out some forty or fifty passengers yesterday afternoon, among whom were JULIUS MOVIUS, Esq., of Buffalo, and several other prominent Eastern men, returning from the Chicago Convention. The weather was very fine, and they doubtless had a delightful trip across the Lake.

COURTESIES AT CHICAGO.—A number of our Wisconsin delegation, who were in Chicago during the sitting of the Convention, desire us to return their acknowledgements to Mr. J. B. RICE, of Chicago, and Mr. J. V. AYER, of Kenosha, for various courtesies and hospitalities extended to them, during their sojourn in the Prairie City.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—J. W. DUNLAP will sell this morning, at 10 o'clock, at J. ROONEY'S auction room, a case of household linen goods, a double wagon, and butter, to satisfy an execution against THEODORE BRUNO and LOUIS J. OPPEN; with also a double harness, sewing machine and two crates of crockery.

BAD FOR THE NEWSMEN.—The Eastern mails now come so quickly and promptly by the way of the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway, that the newsmen, with all their enterprise, seldom enjoy the advantage of having the New York papers "in advance of the mail."

FOR BUFFALO.—The splendid upper cabin screw steamer Galena, Captain STEELE, leaves the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R. Dock, at 3 P. M., for the above and intermediate ports. For passage apply at the office, foot of East Water Street. GRIFFIN & FLINT, Agent.

BROOK TROUT.—We are indebted to our neighbor, Mr. J. M. ALLCOTT, whose store is opposite to the Sentinel office, on East Water Street, for a nice mess of fresh brook trout.

THE STUDENTS of the Second Ward High School are requested to meet at the High School room on Wednesday morning, May 23, at 9 o'clock.

ANOTHER lot of goods direct from England arrived here to-day by the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway for the Hudson's Bay Company.

THE STEAMER GAZELLE continues to make her daily trips to Chicago—leaving at 7 instead of 9.

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of IRON can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Invalids in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Inflammatory Consumption, Scrofula, Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis; Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or the continued exhaustion of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved sufficient to establish its superiority, no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world, as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are at this period of writing under treatment and victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, urinal changes, and that complication of nervous and stomachic debility, to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds and for removing the effects of mercurial poisons, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the Protoxide, it is vinously tonic, without being exciting and overbracing; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a drastic purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably efficacious and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

HANNIBAL HAMLIN,

OF MAINE.

The Chicago Nominations.

The first-fruits of the nomination, by the National Republican Convention at Chicago, on Friday last, of ABRAM LINCOLN, of Illinois, for President, and HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Maine, for Vice President of the United States, has ere this reached almost every part of the country. It would be useless to deny that in many quarters, a feeling of deep disappointment succeeded the first receipt of the news. Especially was this the case in our own State, where the Republican preference for WILLIAM H. SEWARD has always been most decided. Our delegates at Chicago, led by CARL SCHURZ, faithfully reflected this preference, and cast an unbroken vote on every ballot, for the illustrious Senator of New York. When, on the third ballot, it was found that Mr. LINCOLN had received a majority, and Mr. EVARTS, speaking for New York, moved to make the nomination unanimous, Mr. SCHURZ, for Wisconsin, seconded the motion, in a few brief, eloquent and impressive remarks, which elicited the cheers of the vast audience. There was no dissenting voice, in the Convention, to the nomination of Mr. LINCOLN, and there will be none among the Republicans of the country at large. Next to Mr. SEWARD, Mr LINCOLN was probably the most acceptable candidate that could be presented to Wisconsin. He is a Western man, identified with the growing, jealous with the interests and rights of the Great West. He is personally known to many of our citizens and counts numerous friends among them. His public record is a clear one; his private character without a stain. His principles are those of the Republican party, of which he has been a member from the start and seldom have those principles been vindicated with more power and eloquence than they were by ABRAHAM LINCOLN in the memorable campaign in Illinois in 1858.

Associated with Mr. LINCOLN, on the Republican ticket, is Senator HAMLIN, of Maine. He too, like Mr. L., early enlisted in the Republican cause, and has struck many a good blow in its behalf. Under the lead of HAMLIN, FESSENDEN, MORRILL and other distinguished men of Maine, that State, so long wedded to Democratic idols, has become ingrained in Republicanism. While in the old division of parties Mr. LINCOLN was a leading Whig, Mr. HAMLIN was a prominent and influential Democrat. In this, as in other respects, the ticket is happily constituted.

The "Platform" is an excellent one. It enunciates terse, forcible and explicit language, the principles and doctrines of the Republican party. There are no two faced expressions, or glittering generalities about it. It is not susceptible of one construction at the North and another at the South. Like the sound-hearted men who are placed upon it, it is straightforward, practical and out spoken.—For such a platform and candidates so essentially worthy of that name, we do not doubt that the Republicans of Wisconsin will rally to a man. Though they do not enter upon the canvass with the irrepressible enthusiasm that the name of Governor SEWARD would have awakened, they go into it with a high opinion of Mr. LINCOLN, with a hearty adhesion to the platform, with serried ranks and earnest purpose and with undoubting confidence of a glorious victory.

The Man.

The nomination now presented to the people, leaves the work and the responsibility with the people. A man has been chosen—in the person of ABRAHAM LINCOLN—who is known principally for his integrity and ability. A self-made man, thoroughly Democratic in every sense but a false political one—a man, whose own labor has exalted him—a man of the People. There will be a great searching of records to find antecedents, but his record is clear of everything dishonest. The search will lead back to the studious lawyer—and then to the hard working man, toiling with his hands for an honest livelihood. And this is the school where our standard-bearer learned his first lessons of right and wrong. We shall not have to penetrate official corruption and barrow through political changes, before we can get at the man. The same honest individuality is apparent in the laborer and the statesman. ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S life is an instructive biography. It mirrors the example of a man whose ambition never mastered his conscience, whose life is free from the gloss of policy or duplicity, and whose moral courage and decision of character command our respect and admiration.

A careful investigation of his acts cannot but lead to the proof, not only of his ability intellectually speaking—but of his worth in a moral sense. And his public acts demonstrate that the one thing, needful above all others, in a President, is possessed in no small degree by him. We mean moral courage. Not the courage to say and do when circumstances are favorable, but the courage that knows no circumstance—that is the voice of Justice and Right freely spoken and never swerved from.

At this particular era of our history, these qualifications appear peculiarly brilliant from contrast. The statesman grown gray in intrigue, and surrounded by the influences of that party to which he is wedded—to the extinction of all principle, and whose career has been one of finesse and finance, who could be sway'd by every evil counsel—and who covers up with gold what cannot be erased—who buys and sells the people, and winks at robbery so long as the Government is only the loser—and who will not suffer his acts to be investigated—this statesman is a representative man of the political school proper. The other picture is more agreeable the longer we look at it.

ABE LINCOLN is man of the Northwest; he has grown with its growth, and from its earliest struggle to the dawning of its prosperity its fortune has been his.

It is not too much to say that no man has been placed before the people of late years combining so many of the qualities which the country is actually in want of, as appear in the character of ABRAHAM LINCOLN. He did not ask for the nomination. It was the spontaneous gift of the people, who will, in the fall election, show how well they understood what they were about, by placing him in that position at present so sadly in want of positive honesty and unflinching courage.

MR. EVERETT DECLINES.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Traveller states that it is reported in Washington, on the authority of a relative of Mr. Everett, that he will not accept the position assigned to him upon the Baltimore ticket.

A TELEGRAPHIC DESPATCH was received in Lynn recently, but was refused by the person to whom it was sent, on the ground that he didn't recognize the handwriting as belonging to the one who was said to have sent it.

A Political Prisoner.

U. S. CUSTOM HOUSE PRISON, }
May 19, 1860. }

EDITOR SENTINEL:—I wish, through your columns, to call attention to the fact, and state some of the proofs of it, that I am held in this public building of the U. S., as a political prisoner, and that personal and political motives have instigated my prosecutors and persecutors, through the whole course of their proceedings, up to this hour. I have committed treason against Slavery, but not against the Government, and the Slave Power which controls the Government, and sees in the triumph of Republican politics, the end of its reign, has resolved to make such an example of me as to deter all friends of Liberty, in the future, from rebelling against its usurped authority.

At first, I was the only one arrested and bound over for trial, though a thousand persons were as disloyal to the Kidnapping Act as I was. Then, some eight others were indicted, of whom but one—JOHN RYCRAFT—was brought to trial. He was convicted of the overt act of breaking jail, and was sentenced to but ten days imprisonment and $200 fine, and no costs. I was sentenced to a month's imprisonment, $1,000 fine and $461 costs. E. G. RYAN was employed by the U. S. Government as public prosecutor, and arraigned me in a most vindictive manner for my politics, and called upon the jury in virtue of my position as a Republican editor, preaching political heresy and setting at defiance one of the Slave Compromises of 1850, to find me guilty. On the rendering of the verdict, the Sentinel of January 16, 1859, said:

"The manner in which the trial has been conducted has shocked the public sense of right, and outraged their love of fair play.—The impanelling of the Grand and Petit Juries was a mockery of Justice, and, if acquiesced in, establishes the right of the U. S. officers to select whomever they please for that service, or in plainer phrase, to pack a jury whenever it suits them. The leanings of the Court, too, were evidently against the defendant; and mix'd up with the professional zeal which animated the Counsel for the Prosecution, was more of personal vindictiveness toward Mr. Booth than became them or the U. S. Court."

The day previous, the Sentinel said, "Mr. RYAN closed for the Government with more vindictiveness toward the defendant than became him, or the Court in which he plead." And this was the general sentiment of the whole community.

Why have not the other persons, indicted with me for the same offense, been tried?—Why is JOHN RYCRAFT, convicted and sentenced with me for the same offense, permitted to go at large, while I am imprisoned?—Because, as editor of a Republican paper, I had rendered myself obnoxious to the Slave Power and to the Democratic party—the guardian and representative of Slavery. Of course, I could not be forgiven. For the Slave Power treats its political prisoners worse than the despotisms of Europe treat theirs. For while they imprison the body, the Slave Power seeks to subjugate the soul. The U. S. Government are not content with enslaving all that is mortal of me;—it demands the homage of my immortal spirit to an infamous and diabolical statute—it seeks to make me partake of the cup of devils—it wants me to swear fealty to slave-catching, and to endorse kidnapping as a righteous business, and to make public confession of sin, and crave the interposition of the pardoning power for having aided a human being to escape from his kidnappers and regain his liberty.

The News has not scrupled to avow, that it wishes to have me kept in prison for past, and security for the future." Its Washington correspondent, with that repentance and humiliation, were the only conditions on which the President would unbar my prison doors. And the News declared that, 'S. M. BOOTH will continue to suffer the penalties of violated laws, unless he gets down on his knees and begs for mercy, let him do this and we doubt not his prison bars would open." It has openly complained of the great mischief I have done the Democratic partyt and avowed its conviction that my continued imprisonment would benefit that party and injure the cause of Republicanism. And the great effort has been to so humiliate me, or compel me to compromise myself, as to destroy my influence in the future.

The President and his subordinates, and the party leaders, do not wish to keep me in prison a single day, if they can turn me adrift bereft of manhood, despoiled of honor, and a postate to my life-cherished principles.

A STRANGE AND INFAMOUS PROPOSITION.

But there is one condition on which the Government is willing to pardon me, without confession, without submission, and without asking pardon for having violated the Kidnapping Act. It is a strange proposition for any Government, or the Attorney of any Government to make, and shows that so intent are the powers that be on my destruction, that they are willing to overlook my offences against slavery, remit my fine and costs, open my prison doors and set me at liberty, provided they can compass my ruin. This proposition was tendered to me some two months ago, before my month's imprisonment had expired, by E. G. RYAN, Prosecuting Attorney of the U. S. Government in the case for which I am now imprisoned, and the Prosecuting Attorney, for the love of the thing, without fee or reward, in the cases now pending against me in the State Courts. He made the formal proposition to me, through my counsel, JOSHUA STARK, that if I would plead guilty to the criminal indictment against me in the seduction suit—a suit in which, after eleven days superhuman labor, aided by the press, prejudice and political partizans, he had failed to make out his case—he would discontinue the civil suit against me for ten thousand dollars damages, and guarantee the remission of my fine and costs, and a release from my present imprisonment by the President of the United States, within ten days from that time.

So the U. S. Government are willing to release me from imprisonment in the slave case, over which it claims extensive jurisdiction, provided I will be guilty of the falsehood of pleading guilty to a criminal indictment, with which it has no concern!

Of course Mr. RYAN, the prosecuting attorney of the United States Government in my case, would not have made such a proposition without the knowledge and concurrence of that Government, or without a moral certainty that he could secure what he undertook to perform, viz: my release from imprisonment within ten days. But in what attitude does this place Mr. RYAN and the Chief Magistrate of this great Republic? Willing to open my prison doors here, provided I will consent to acknowledge myself guilty of a crime which I never committed, and take the chances of either going to State Prison, or to the County Jail! Hunting in couples to hunt me to destruction! The prosecutors and backers in the Seduction Case joining hands with the prosecutors and backers in the Fugitive Slave Case—O, after I have served out my month's imprisonment—offering to remit fine and costs and let me out, if I will plead guilty of crime against the State and trust to Judicial lenity and Executive clemency for the length of an imprisonment under the auspices of the State instead of the United States! And Mr. RYAN is ready, not only to pledge the President to open my prison doors, but to sacrifice the interests and claims of his client, to the amount of ten thousand dollars, to secure this result. It was well said by my counsel, in communicating Mr. RYAN'S proposition to me, that he "did not know before, that the President of the United States took such a deep interest in the suits which Mr. RYAN is prosecuting against me, in the Courts of this State." And Mr. RYAN must either regard the claims of his client for damages as very flimsy and untenable, or he was ready to sacrifice those claims to personal and political vengeance. I have felt it due to myself to make this exposition, to show that my imprisonment here is prolonged for no public or particular ends. The law of slavery has been as amply vindicated by my imprisonment up to this time, as it could be by my imprisonment for twenty years. I am here a political prisoner in the hands of E. G. RYAN, and his confreres, who by his own proposition, proclaims that he holds the keys of my prison door and I am kept here, not to promote the ends of public justice, but to subserve partisan objects, and to gratify personal malice and political hate and revenge.

Truly yours, S. M. BOOTH.

LETTERS FROM A PEDESTRIAN.

NUMBER THREE.

Travels through Town and Country.

From an Occasional Correspondent.

PEWAUKEE, May 17, 1860.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—When you received our last communication we were passing over the prairie between Otsego and Columbus.—It was late in the afternoon when we descended the bluff that overlooks this charming region, and before we were half way to Columbus night had spread her sable mantle on the earth, covering the magnificent fields and enveloping the farm-houses and surroundings in mistiness. The moon had not yet arisen and though the stars shone with their wonted brightness, our prospect was mainly confined to the smooth, well-beaten road.—The cheerful light from the window gave an air of comfort to the dwelling and made us feel that though wandering far from home, and alone, we were in an inhabited country, and not in a dreary wilderness. Occasionally some belated farmer returning from mill or the village, passed by us, or some bashful swain, attired in Sunday best, going forth on an errand of love to his MARY JANE; but toward the latter part of our day's journey we were interrupted by no human presence. We had the whole road to ourself, and, passing along with as much celerity as circumstances would allow, we entered the city of Columbus. A cohort of dogs gave us a doubtful salutation on our arrival and seemed inclined to regard us with considerable suspicion. However, as we were well armed with a stout walking stick, they kept at a respectful distance.

The Whitney House is a splendid hotel, of brick, and four stories high. It is well finished and fitted up throughout with all the comforts of a first-class city hotel The proprietor is a gentleman, and does all in his power to satisfy the wishes of his guests.

Of course we were tired and sleepy after our walk of thirty miles, and we had not lain long on a luxurious couch before we were locked in the arms of Morpheus, and remained so till morning light.

Columbus is an important town, at the present terminus of the Milwaukee, Watertown & Baraboo Valley R. R. It is situated in the south-east corner of Columbia county, in a first rate farming region, with an abundance of water power and every element of wealth and prosperity. It contains a number of elegant dwelling-houses, made of the pressed yellow brick, several churches and school houses, a large grist-mill, several shops, stores, hotels, a printing office, with a quantum of groceries and saloons.

As we left the place early on the next day, we were unable to make particular observations of the business resources and beauties of Columbus. The Mil., Wat. & B. V. R.R. cars leave for Milwaukee at about half past six A. M., and as it was now only 5 o'clock we concluded to walk along to the next station and then ride a few miles to relieve our weariness. We took the railroad track, supposing it to be better travelling than the common road. In this we were mistaken. Of course it was straighter and not so hilly, but the road was built for the cars to pass over and not especially for travellers on foot.—Consequently the irregular but solid blocks of timbers on which the rails rest were rough and at awkward distances apart, and in some places imperfectly filled in between with earth or ballasted, as they call it. It was emphatically a hard road to travel. At every crossing there were two deep holes dug out and walled up on either side of the wagon road, and a pedestrian has to step very carefully if he succeeds in crossing at all. We had a narrow escape from tumbling into one of these holes and smashing a few swine that were wallowing in the mire below. These places go by the name of cattle guards. We thought a more appropriate title would be man traps.

Four miles beyond Columbus is Elba, the first station on the R. R. It is a pleasant country village, a short distance from the depot to the south. We breakfasted here and waited a short time for the train. At length the locomotive came thundering along drawing a long string of freight cars with a baggage and passenger car attached. We got into the baggage car, bought a SENTINEL, seated ourself in an arm chair with our feet elevated on the stove, and were supremely comfortable, while we read the great HEENAN and SAYERS fight and the Charleston Convention.

Beyond Reesville is the Mud Lake, over which the Railroad has built such a large bridge. The lake appeared, from the time consumed in crossing, about two miles in width. This is a literal bed of mud of great depth; only a little water to be observed on its surface at all, though its present condition may be attributed, in part, to the unusually dry season. We passed through some thick groves of heavy timber, with here and there the clearing and log hut of some enterprising foreigner. We concluded they were the operations of foreigners, because no Yankee would not be contented to spend all his life in beginning a farm, when so much prairie and oak-opening land is attainable.

Watertown, at the northern part of Jefferson county, is a flourishing city of about ten thousand inhabitants. It has extensive water-power—the best and largest in this portion of the State. The superlatively crooked Rock River makes one of its grand twists and flows through the centre of the city. It crosses the Railroad track three times in a very few miles. The growth of Watertown has been steady for several years, and it now ranks next to Milwaukee, the largest city in Wisconsin. It has direct communication with Milwaukee and Chicago by Railroad and telegraph, and all the facilities of intercourse with New York and other Eastern cities. The Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, now completed to Oshkosh, crosses the track of the Milwaukee, Watertown & Baraboo Valley Railroad here, and a branch railroad to Sun Prairie makes three important roads passing through and diverging from this point. Several freight cars were added to our already loaded train, and with an additional locomotive to push, we left Watertown and proceeded very slowly up some heavy grades toward Oconomowoc. There is considerable timber and marsh land through this section, with little or no prairie. The land is rich, and though requiring some perseverance and capital, is cultivated to a great extent.

We tarried at Oconomowoc a few moments to hitch on some more cars, but not long enough to get much of an idea of the place. In fact this modern fashion of hurrying through a country on the cars, is not the most profitable way of traveling. It should be one of the chief objects of a person on a journey to get an accurate information of the geography of the country through which he passes—the size, importance, and general features of the towns and cities. Of course this cannot be done when he is whirled over the railroad at a lightning speed—and objects that attract his eye are a mile behind him before he can give them the second look. The best and most independent way to travel is to shoulder the knapsack containing the portfolio, and, like BAYARD TAYLOR, take the journey on foot, stopping when and where you please—at the village, by the roadside, on the mountain, in the valley, talking with the people, taking notes by the way of all that interests or is curious, and doing whatever your fancy dictates, without fear of molestation or inconvenience.

At Pewaukee we left the railroad, and after eating dinner, struck across the country for the town of Waukesha, some six miles distant. Pewaukee lake furnishes a good water power for the grist mill at the village, and is a grand place for fishing. I believe it is the head waters of the Fox river. The lake is quite low now, and in the summer time grows up to grass and pond lilies, interfering materially with bathing and fishing operations. More anon. AGRICOLA.

The Chicago Convention and its Nominees

This, the most important convocation since that which met at independence Hall, adjourned sine die last evening, and the result of its deliberations, is being heralded throughout the Union, by guns, bonfires and illuminations.

Men of earnest purpose and stern resolve came together that the Union might be saved from the dangers which threaten it—that Freedom might be nationalized—that free institutions might be perpetuated, and the government restored to the track beaten by the patriots and statesmen who fashioned it.

Doubtless the delegates, in the performance of their high and solemn trust, acted from honest convictions, in deeming success a duty. The ticket was formed with the assurance from the doubtful States that they would bear it to a glorious victory, and that assurance was all-powerful with the Convention.

The first choice of the Convention—of the masses in attendance of the Republican party—manifestly pointed to one whose white plume had always been seen in the van of the conflict, who had fought hundreds of battles for the cause and not one against it, but whose scars received in them, were considered fatal. The success of the gallant Lincoln is not considered by his friends, his recovery, as a triumph over Mr. Seward. Disciples of the same faith—recognized leaders in the great "irrepressible conflict," a large majority of the Convention voted on the first ballot for these two truly representative men, and the result was a choice between them, settled by the supposed greater availability.

But the members of the Convention having performed their duties, it now becomes Republicans to enter at once upon those devolving on them. The National Republican ticket is commended to the warm, earnest and united support of every friend of Freedom.

Of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, nothing need be said by us. These columns, for the past sixteen years, have testified to our devotion to him, and chronicled his fame. No truer patriot, no more tried or trusted soldier ever wielded a blade in defence of the great principle for which we are all battling; and none can be more worthy of support. His name is a tower of strength wherever it is heralded, and will kindle an enthusiasm upon the prairies, which none other could awaken.

HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Maine, though second in place, is not a stranger to the affections of those who comprise the great army of freedom. In 1856, it was HANNIBAL HAMLIN who led off as a candidate for Governor of his State, having resigned his place in the Senate, and withdrawn from the Democratic party because of its demoralization and Slaveryism. He is an independent, true-hearted freeman himself, and well qualified to be one of the standard-bearers of the party of freemen.

The ticket is a powerful one, possessing all the elements of strength before the people. Both men are honest, faithful and devoted representatives of the principles of the great Republican party of the Nation. And now, with these strong men as our standard-bearers, and with the noble platform which the Convention has given us, let us move forward "conquering and to conquer." Let every Republican go into the great battle with ardor, determined to do the best he can for the Cause.

LINCOLN and HAMLIN! Union and Liberty! Republicanism and Victory! Forward march!—Chicago Journal, May 19.

Auction Sales.

City Auction Room and Land Office.

I AM NOW REMOVED TO THE STORE No. 161 East Water street, It is directly opposite to Mitchell's Bank. I think I have now one of the best stands for auction business in our city. All who have any business in my line will please give me a call.

The firm of OGDEN & WALL is dissolved. I will attend to private sales and auctioneering as usual. I will purchase, and attend to all business, such as obtaining loans, and negotiating mortgages on real estate generally. I can obtained in first class Eastern Companies at current rates. In the course of two weeks I intend to make out a general report of the improvements which are now going on in the various Wards of our city. The impression with some is that no improvements are going on, which is a mistake. Our city is yet alive and going ahead, and will continue to do so. I shall be pleased to show capitalists or others desirous to invest money, as now offers. Any thing I would request: all who have made contracts for buildings will please inform me, so that I can report the same. CALEB WALL,
City Land Agent.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING! CLOTHING! I am selling Twenty Thousand Dollars worth of Clothing at half price. For a small sum of money I can make any one look respectable outwardly; and it is best at that price to have a good outward appearance, for many are passing through this world with nothing else to look upon. Sale of clothing every morning at auction. Great excitement.

Presidential Election!

THE GREAT CAMPAIGN

IS AT HAND!!

Let Every Republican Prepare for the Conflict!!

Circulate Truth among the People!!

THE WEEKLY SENTINEL

Six Months for Less than Cost of Paper and Printing!!!

READ AND BE CONVINCED!

The approaching campaign is to be a memorable one. The battle will be fought exclusively between the friends and the enemies of Freedom, and the ground contested inch by inch. In view of these facts, it is apparent that the dissemination of Republican papers and documents becomes of vast and vital importance. In order to furnish the WEEKLY SENTINEL to the people of the North-West during the Campaign of 1860, we have concluded to offer the paper, FROM THE 10TH OF MAY TO THE 15TH OF NOVEMBER, at the following unprecedented liberal terms:

One Copy for	$0 50
Twenty Copies, (to one address)	$9 00
Fifty " "	$20 00
One Hundred do " "	$35 00

These terms will barely cover the cost of paper before it is printed; but we have determined to put the price so low that every individual Republican or organized Club, in this or adjoining States, will use their best endeavors to scatter the SENTINEL broadcast in their particular localities, and thus accomplish more than by the circulation of ten times as many documents in any other form. Every Campaign subscriber will receive the Proceedings of the National Convention, to be held in May, and full returns of the election in November.

We need not urge upon our Republican friends the importance of placing this sheet in the hands of all. Let no voter, or family in the State, be without the SENTINEL during the Campaign. Wherever facts are read, and the people have access to truth, Republicanism prevails.

Send in your orders as early in May as possible. Address

JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN.

MILWAUKEE, April 9, 1860.

☞ REPUBLICAN PAPERS in this State, with whom we exchange, will please publish the above, or the substance of it, one or two times, and thereby lay us under additional obligation for the favor.

Special Notices.

THE OLD MAN'S MEMORIES.

BY HENRY R. TRACY.

Blow on, fierce winds! Ye cannot tear from out my soul
The memory of those golden, happy hours
I've passed while traveling forward this distant goal,
With friends and lovers in the wayside bowers,
Where pilgrims on the dusty track of life
Rest their worn limbs, grown faint with toil and strife,
And plume anew Hope's wings amid the wayside flowers.

In youth a mother's love fell on my soul, like dew
That feeds the vitals of the opening rose,
Her smile shone ever tender on me, ever new,—
When flushed with sports, or wrapt in soft repose:
Her blessing followed all my truant ways,
And shed a halo o'er my early days
That tinges yet the stream of life that feebly flows.

And when I stepped with free and lightsome tread
On manhood's threshold, in my early prime,
Fair maidens greeted me, and one must fair I wed,
And swore to love and cherish through our mortal time.
Her love was my delight and solace many years,—
Our hopes, our joys, our duties, cares and tears
Were mingled in one stream, whose flow made life sublime.

The years flew by on sweeping pinions, and my cup
O'erflowed with gladness, when a bright-eyed boy
At my fond heart in beauty and in strength grew up,
To brim my beaker with that sweetest joy
Which mortals taste in all the feasts of earth—
That fount of love which opened at his birth,
And through his life flowed purely on without alloy.

And still the years flew o'er my head till one by one
My blessings flowed on to other hopes decayed—
Mother and friendly maidens, wife and darling son
Within the wounded breast of earth were laid—
While I alone am left, a blasted oak,
Scathed by the tempest and the lightning stroke,
With none to sorrow when my weary life is done.

And yet, fierce winds, ye cannot tear out from my soul
The memory of those golden, happy hours—
Ye cannot blot the echoes of old songs that roll
In harmony above your untuned powers—
Nor can ye steal the perfume and the bloom
From flower and bud, transplanted to the tomb,
That shed their fragrance still in memory's bowers.

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

THE REASON WHY, IS THAT BY Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, prevents dandruff, itching and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy, curly and beautiful and if used by the young it will not turn gray. When it will prevent or become gray; then readers, read the following and judge for yourselves:

New York, Jan. 8, 1855.

MESSRS O. J., WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which, in common with a great many persons, I had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been very satisfactory, that I am very glad that I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, I have no hesitation in allowing without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being personal demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me, for further proof, which I am ready to give. I am, Wise Railing Establishment every day.

My hair is now of its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier an thicker and much more healthy looking.

I am, Yours Respectfully,

HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbus and Carroll sts., Brooklyn.

LITTLE FALLS, July 5, 1859.

PROF WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country.—My hair has been entirely diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for a few weeks and I find that a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy ever offered, and all ladies who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

S. COLE, &c. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head is most lost its covering, was in fact BALD. I have used half the bottle of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the remainder is also presenting a change. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many of my friends to use it.

Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.

No. 464 Vine street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least one per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

LET ALL WHO HAVE THE BLUES READ THIS:—Why should any one be discouraged? Mr. J. B. Martin informed me to day that he has purchased 40 feet by 120, corner of Grand Ave. and Wisconsin streets, for which he pays five hundred dollars per foot, making twenty thousand dollars. He intends to put up stores, offices, &c., &c., on the same, which will be an ornament to the city, and will cost him from thirty to forty thousand dollars. I think we should all feel brighter than we do, and our friend J. B. Martin deserves much praise, for you will remember that he was the first man who took the responsibility of erecting the magnificent blocks of stores in our city several years ago.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—9 P. M.

HOUSE.—The Speaker laid before the House a special message of the President, similar to that communicated to the Senate on Saturday, recommending further legislation in regard to the re-captured Africans.

Mr. Branch said, in addition to the slaves recaptured by the Mohawk, unofficial information had been received that another cargo had been seized on the coast of Cuba, and hence there should be prompt action on the part of Congress. It appeared to him that the only additional legislation required was an explanation and construction of the act heretofore passed. His motion, as amended, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Disch introduced a bill granting 160 acres of land to each officer and soldier who had served in the army for a period of five years although not in any of the wars in which the country had been engaged.

Other bills were introduced in relation to county lands.

On motion of Mr. Elliott, the President was requested to furnish the House the information recently received, relative to the Chinese Coolie trade.

Mr. Wells introduced a resolution for fine and imprisonment for the purchase of Africans imported into the country in violation of the law for the suppression of the Slave Trade.

Opposition being made, the resolution lies over.

Mr. Montgomery introduced a resolution providing for the adjournment of Congress on the 14th of June.

Much confusion followed in consequence, and an ineffectual motion was made to table it.

Mr. Sherman proposed an amendment, substituting the 18th, which Mr. Montgomery accepted. Mr. Hale refused a further amendment by Mr. Sherman, providing for evening sessions. The resolution was adopted—125 to 67.

Mr. Kellogg, from the committee on roads and canals, reported a joint resolution, which was passed, authorizing the enlargement of the Branch of the Louisville and Portland Canal.

On motion of Mr. Curtis the Pacific R. R. bill was made the special order on and after Thursday.

On motion of Mr. Lovejoy the House, under a suspension of the rules, took up the Homestead bill as amended by the Senate, and substituted therefor the original House bill, by the narrow majority of one vote.

The House passed the Senate bill with an amendment to regulate and increase the pay of the officers of the navy. It gives them an average of 25 per cent over the present salaries.

Mr. Washburn, of Ill., from committee on commerce, reported the river harbor and bill.

The proceedings throughout were in no wise ordinarily turbulent.

At 5 o'clock Mr. Stanton said the reputation of the House and the country would be prejudiced by an adjournment.

Mr. Sherman wanted to go into committee of the whole on the state of the Union.

Adjourned.

SENATE.—Mr. Cameron presented the petition from the citizens of Pennsylvania for an alteration of the revenue law. He said he should press this question so that he might know who were the friends of the measure.

Mr. Sumner offered a resolution that the Committee on Commerce be instructed to inquire what further action is not necessary to provide for the better safety of passengers between New York and San Francisco.

Wilson made some lengthy remarks in opposition to the African Slave trade, and in support of the bill for its more effectual suppression.

Mr. Davis' Territorial resolutions were taken up and Mr. Toombs made a long speech, concluding by calling on his political friends to put the stamp of disapproval on the doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty.

There was a stream of light coming from Chicago. Action had been devoured by its pledge. He called on the Democracy to unite against the common foe, and while vindicating Southern principles of Charleston, urged them to return to Baltimore with the view of uniting to beat the Republicans.

Hammond read a brief legal argument against Squatter Sovereignty.

Mr. Pugh explained briefly. He should vote for most of these resolutions. Mr. Hale would tell his Northern Democratic friends that the Southern wing always would control the party. The great object of the Federal Constitution was the establishment of an independent judiciary.

He charged that the action of the Democracy was to defeat the action of the founders of the government, in this respect it had lifted up the bench with politicians, and worse than that sought to make the Supreme Court a part of a bloody battle between contending factions of parties. He denied that the Dred Scott decision bound anybody on political questions at issue.

Adjourned.

QUEBEC, May 21—9 P. M.

The steamship Anglo Saxon, from Liverpool the 9th and via Queenstown the 10th, arrived at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The news is one day later than that by the Adriatic at New York, but presents no items of importance beyond a decrease in the rate of interest by the Bank of England, to 4 1-2 per cent.

LONDON, Thursday.—The Times city article, dated last evening, says this being a setting day, the consols market opened with great firmness, but subsequently declined; although a further considerable amount of gold was taken to the bank, it is considered certain that the rate of discount will be reduced 1 half and perhaps one per cent.

Political considerations exercised some influence during the day, owing to the smallness of the Ministerial majority last night, and the currency of rumors that further operations is contemplated on the paper question.

Money was in fair supply at the Bank, but there was no demand. The gold taken to the Bank to-day amounted to £100,000.

PARIS, Thursday.—The Moniteur announces that the Supreme Council of Commerce, appointed for the execution of the treaty with England, assembled on Monday last, and will in future meet on Monday, Thursday and Friday of each week.

LONDON, Thursday.—The Grand Trunk Railroad second debentures amounting to over £1,000,000, are nearly all taken up at 80 to 85.

The Times has a disparaging leader on the commercial treaty, and recommends that the prohibition of French paper, unless the prevailing duty on the paper is removed.

The Pony Express, with San Francisco dates of the 11th, reached St. Joseph this P. M. The news is not specially important.

The Japanese corvette, Candinamarrh, sailed homeward via Honolulu, on the 7th, having been completely repaired at the Navy Yard free of charge.

She started immediately after the arrival of the Pony Express, bringing news only eighteen days from Europe. Her homeward trip will be a complete transmission of news around the world quicker than ever before done.

The pony express with St. Louis dates of April 28, arrived at Carson Valley on 7th, with news indicating the nomination of Douglas at Charleston, which caused great embarrassment among the Democracy.

A body of three or four hundred well-mounted and armed Indians massacred 12 or 14 whites at the Big Bend of Carson river on the 7th. Armed parties are in pursuit of the murderers.

The express brought 100 letters from San Francisco.

Later from Pike's Peak.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 21—9 P. M.

The Pike's Peak Express, bringing Denver City dates of the 15th, arrived.

Weather at Denver was clear, cool and pleasant.

Advices from the head waters of Blue river, state rich gulch mines have been discovered, containing lumps of gold varying in value from $1 to $17, and within two to eighteen feet of surface.

New discoveries are daily being made in the vicinity of Gregory's of promising nature. Emigration was pouring in in torrents and it is estimated that 5,000 people arrived via Platte route last week. Other routes are reported thronged.

CHICAGO, May 19, 1860.
ON BOARD SCHOONER TWO CHARLIES.

WHEREAS, Col. K. K. Jones, of Quincy, Illinois, our former esteemed townsman, has presented to the passengers on board the schooner Two Charlies, Republican citizens of the village of Manitowoc, Wis., a Lincoln flag, at a meeting held on the deck of the schooner, it was Resolved, That although we came here from our Northern Wisconsin homes, earnestly and enthusiastically for the nomination of New York's great statesman, Wm. H. Seward, we came Republicans, we return Republicans, and will give Honest Old Abe as cordial and enthusiastic support as our favorite candidate.

Resolved, That with pride and pleasure we will read to our fellow Republicans at home the glorious platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Chicago as a sure quarter of success in November next.

Resolved, That we thankfully accept from K. K. Jones the flag, and guarantee glorious Abraham Lincoln the unanimous support of every true Republican of Manitowoc, and it shall wave at the mast-head, and we never will desert the good old Republican ship.

Reception of the News of the Chicago Nominations.

The news of the nomination of Abe Lincoln was received in this city yesterday with great enthusiasm, by the opponents of the Administration. Our bulletin board, where the news was posted, was the center of a throng of people all the afternoon. The news spread like wildfire, and one universal cry of "Good!" greeted it. In the evening a salute was fired from Jackson Hill. This was all the public demonstration made, but in a few days there will be "a demonstration as is a demonstration." As will be seen, there is to be a meeting to-night to organize a "Wide Awake Club." It should be fully attended.—Cincinnati Gazette, May 19.

MONETARY.

MONDAY, P. M., May 21, 1860.

Money matters are quiet and have not changed in any respect since the close of last week. Exchange continues close at 1/4 premium, and Currency easy. The offerings of good business paper are freely taken by the banks, and are scarcely sufficient to employ all the surplus currency.

The Cincinnati Gazette of Saturday morning has the following:

The money market took an easy turn to-day, and got fairly into the improving scale, but the demand was still equal to the supply of currency, and bankers had an opportunity to use their surplus means in good paper, at 10@12 ₰ cent.

As currency came up, the demand for Eastern Exchange improved, and the sales were lower, in the aggregate, than yesterday, but dealers cont nued to sell freely at 3/4—while they did not care to go out of their way to buy at ₰. A fair amount of exchange is now being made at this and other points West, by produce operators, provisions moving forward pretty freely. New Orleans dull at 1/4 discount buying, and 1/4 premselling. Nothing new in the bill market—very little doing. Gold dull.

There is a good demand for uncurrent money at 1/4 discount for Missouri, Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa. In some cases bankers take Missouri from customers at 1/4 dis. Orders are filled at 1 dis., and the demand in this way is about equal to the receipts.

The Chicago Press & Tribune of this morning says:

Exchange continues very uncomfortably close.—Some of the bankers to-day have been obliged to refuse large drafts, even to best customers. Smaller lots were supplied at the usual rates, viz: 1/4 premium. Currency is abundant. Gold 1/4@3/4 and dull.

MONDAY, P. M.

THE CHICAGO CUSTOM HOUSE.—We have frequently alluded to the illegal and dishonest practice adopted by the Collector of Chicago and his deputies of compelling masters of vessels coming from that port to load here to pay clearance fees. And in such cases, it being necessary for them to take a clearance from this port, they are thus subjected to double fees. The law is that vessels going from one port to another, in the same or an adjoining State, shall not be required to take out clearances or pay any fees. But the Chicago Collector does not stop at exacting illegal fees. He takes particular pains to instruct vessel masters in such instances as the above, not to report themselves at the Milwaukee Custom House; and to give color to his illegal doings he has on several occasions, as we learn from the Commercial Express, entered cargoes which the vessels were to take from Milwaukee and other lake ports, by being shipped from Chicago! Several vessel masters have suffered far more serious trouble and expense than the payment of double fees, by following the instructions of the Chicago Collector in this respect. One case will do to illustrate. The schooner Bunnie Boon came here from Chicago on Friday, and having a clearance from that port, loaded with wheat for Cleveland, and sailed without reporting at the Custom House here. Our Collector has consequently instituted proceedings against the vessel for violating the law, and as soon as she returns to this port—if she ever does so—the captain will be subject to arrest, and a fine of not less than $50.00.

This extortion on the part of the Chicago Collector has been carried on to a greater or less extent for the past two years, vessel masters generally preferring to pay double fees rather than have any trouble. But we are glad to see that there is one captain amongst those who have been imposed upon by the Chicago Collector and his subordinates, who has backbone enough to protest against the swindle, albeit that it is practised by a Government functionary. The following is a letter which Captain CHEYNE, of the schooner Arcturus, has addressed the Department upon the subject:

MILWAUKEE, May 15, 1860.

SIR:—On the 11th inst., I went to the Custom House at Chicago, for the purpose of reporting my intention to proceed with my vessel, the schooner Arcturus, to Milwaukee, without a cargo. The Collector inquired whether I was going to Milwaukee to load, and after my answering in the affirmative and saying that it would be very likely that I would find a cargo for Buffalo, he told me that I must take a clearance, and forbid me leaving port without it. I remonstrated, as Milwaukee was my port of destination, and I could not tell whether I would find any cargo, or whether I should lay my vessel up there. But as the Collector insisted upon his demand, and his forbiddance to depart without a clearance, I finally took a clearance and paid a fee of 20 cents.

Being of the opinion that the law does not require the masters of vessels to clear from one port to another in the same, or an adjoining State, if they go for a cargo, and after having loaded to clear again and pay the fee of a clearance at both ports, and that, therefore, the proceedings above referred to, are unlawful and tending merely to the exaction of illegal fees, I beg leave to inform you of the same and very respectfully request you to instruct the Collector at Chicago to refund the money thus illegally exacted.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES G. CHEYNE,
Master of the schr. Arcturus, of Milwaukee.

Hon. HOWELL COBB,
Secretary of the Treasury,
Washington, D. C.
